ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Steve Brink has been in the community association industry for almost two decades either as a vendor and/or board member. As an IICRC certified master textile cleaner, master fire & smoke restorer and a master water restorer, Steve's goal is to combine expertise and capabilities to provide solutions and value for customers in need of mitigation, restoration and construction services.

Art Hopkins has been in the Community Insurance Industry for over 20 years, earning his EBP distinction, CMCA and CIRMS designations from CAMICB and CAI. As an independent insurance Agent Broker, he has worked with many insurance companies and claims processes over the years, as each company can be different with coverage and claims handling.

Kyle Lakin is a partner of Delphi Law Group, LLP and has been admitted to practice law since 1998. During the last 14 years, Kyle's practice has focused on providing legal services to community associations in litigation, corporate governance, contract, governing documents, real property and other matters.
